5                   Plaintiff,

ORDER

6                   vs.

7                   RICARDO AVALOS IRIVE,

8                   Defendant.

9                   Based on the pending Stipulation of counsel, and good cause appearing therefore, the 10 Court finds that:

11                 1.       Counsel for the defendant needs additional time to review discovery and conduct
12 investigation in this case to determine whether there are any pretrial issues that must be
13 litigated and whether the case will ultimately go to trial or will be resolved through 14 negotiations.

15                 2.       The parties agree to the continuance.

16                 3.       The defendant is not currently detained pending trial and does not object to a
17 continuance.

18                 4.       The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay, but to
19 allow counsel for defendant sufficient time within which to be able to effective and complete
20 investigation of the discovery materials being provided.

21                 5.       This is the first stipulation to continue filed herein.

22                 For all of the above-stated reasons, the ends of justice would best be served by a
23 continuance of the trial date.
